Senior Farewell

Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you. The wind blows and restless are the sails. Even the rudder begs direction.

Ready am I to go, and my eagerness with sails full set awaits. Your thoughts and my words are waves from a sealed memory that keeps records of our yesterdays.

I came to take of your wisdom, and in this lies my honour and my reward. Ready am I to go. Only another breath will I breathe in this still air, only another loving look cast backward.

And then I shall stand among you a seafarer among seafarers. I shall come to you, a boundless drop to a boundless ocean. And shall it be said that my eve was in truth my dawn.

— Kahlil Gibran
